

U.S. District Court District of Minnesota

New St. Paul Courthouse Location

On September 30, 2005, the St. Paul Judges and court staff who currently reside in the Warren E. Burger Federal Building on Robert Street will be relocated. The Court business will be conducted nearby in interim space at 180 E. Fifth Street for up to three years. Court business as usual will be conducted in the St. Paul interim courthouse. The only business that will NOT be conducted in the interim space are criminal in-custody hearings or trials which will be scheduled in Minneapolis. Directions to the interim courthouse are below. Attorneys, litigants, jurors, customers, vendors, and visitors should report to the interim courthouse.
